COUNCIL PROBES NOISE LEVELS AT UNI FESTIVAL

MANY COMPLAINTS MADE ABOUT LOUD MUSIC AND BAD LANGUAGE

Northampton Borough Council said it was carrying out a "full investigation" into hundreds of complaints it received about noise and bad language at a Freshers event at The University of Northampton.

People living in different areas of Northampton raised their views on social media about the noise level of a FreshFest event held at the Park Campus in Kingsthorpe on Sunday night. Some residents living as far as two miles from the event said they could hear the music and PA system at the event.

Organisers of the Freshfest said noise levels were within those agreed with Environmental Health officers, but turned the sound down as a "gesture of goodwill."

The event also finished 40 minutes early after consultation with Northamptonshire

Police. A Northampton Borough Council spokesman said the University Pavilion was licensed to hold two outdoor events in a marquee a year, one of which was the Freshers' Ball.

The spokesman said: "The condition of this licence was that there was no outside amplified music after 11pm and that steps were taken to minimise the noise levels."

"We are unable to routinely monitor the noise levels at events and the onus is on the licensee to act responsibly and with consideration to people living in the local area, and to comply with relevant noise legislation."

"We will carry out a full investigation into the complaints we received. We have spoken to Northamptonshire Police and will be speaking with the Students Union as a matter of urgency and take any action that is found to be necessary."

In a statement released on its website, The University of Northampton said it was working closely with the Students' Union to ensure future events were managed with minimum disruption.

The statement said: "The university is taking into consideration feedback from local residents which will be used to shape the organisation of future events held on campus."

"The University of Northampton is committed to being a key part of the community of Northampton, and will continue to work in close partnership with the town and its residents."

The Mercury's sister newspaper, the Chronicle & Echo received dozens of complaints on Twitter and Facebook on Sunday night.

One Twitter user said: "I cannot believe how irresponsibly loud this is and I'm miles away across town. This cannot be legal! TURN IT DOWN!"

FreshFest was held to welcome new students to the University of Northampton at its Park Campus

Delays at Gas Street and Towcester Road will be 10 out of 10 on the 'Roadworks Richter Scale' according to one councillor

Motorists braced for autumn of roadworks misery

Highways chief says delays will lead to 'quantum leap' forward

Motorists are braced for a frustrating autumn around Northampton as a host of roadworks commenced in the town centre this week.

The county council are warning drivers to take alternative routes and leave earlier to work as disruption to travel is "inevitable," with so much work taking place on so many of the major routes in and around Northampton.

Cabinet member for highways at the county council, Councillor Michael Clarke (Con, Hackleton and Grange Park) said he was under no illusions the following weeks would be easy, with contractors starting work at three sites this week: the Towcester Road/Gas Street roundabout near Waterside Enterprise Zone, Guildhall Road and the Round Spinney roundabout.

He said: "If we were to rate

this in terms of the Richter Scale, the Bedford Road/ Vic-works can take place. It means three major works will happen simultaneously, though road users will get a five-week respite over the Christmas period.

Contractors are set to halt in the first week of December, before resuming in the new year.

However drivers are being advised to avoid the roads completely, if possible, when Leicester Tigers face Saints on Saturday, December 21.

Not only will the Weedon Road play host to thousands of visiting rugby fans, but an influx of shoppers is likely on the last Saturday before Christmas.

Manager of Upper Priority Street-based K Cars, Chis Mills, said he was preparing for delays in his firm's taxi journey times across the next 30 weeks.

"We will have to see how it goes, to be honest," he said. "Roadworks are essential at times though. I would rather have new roads than the potholes."

Councillor Clarke said the road improvements were all about 'increasing capacity', allowing for more cars to flow around the town's 'pinch points' and to reduce waiting times and queues.

He said: "We will certainly be going back a couple of steps over the next 30 weeks, but that will enable us to take a quantum leap forward."

He added there will be ways to minimise frustration by changing routes and steering clear of the peak travel times, between 8am and 9.30am, 1pm and 2.30pm, and 4pm and 5.30pm.

For people coming into town from the Weedon Road, Councillor Clarke advised taking a left at Spencer Bridge Road and taking a route across the Mounts area, so as to avoid the works at Towcester Road roundabout.

But the highways chief said the council cannot predict 'acts of God' such as faulty temporary traffic lights or extreme weather creating havoc.

"We don't live in a perfect world," he said.

"But we have had preparation meetings with the emergency services and police if something does go wrong."

Dining boat casts off

By PAUL LYNCH
Chronicle Reporter
paul.lynych@jpress.co.uk

A floating restaurant boat at Midsummer Meadow finally opened to the public on Monday, putting an end to a four-year planning wrangle.

The Ark, moored on the River Nene, began trading this week as a bar, though it will not be offering food for another "few weeks", according to owner Hema Patel.

Plans for the family-run business were first submitted to Northampton Borough Council in 2010, but the project became the subject of a protest, as members of the gay community said it would disrupt an area where people had met for more than 50 years in the evenings.

The plan was eventually passed in 2013, and Miss Patel said the family was glad to finally open the doors.

She said: "We are very excited. My family has put a lot of money into this, but I have lived in Northampton all my life and we don't intend on leaving, so we don't really mind putting this investment into our town."

'No-one had ever asked to put a restaurant on the River Nene'

The 75ft long boat was custom built at a factory in Worcester and delivered to Northampton in two pieces.

The idea was conceived by Miss Patel's father Jack, who first proposed a floating restaurant in 2007.

Part of the delay in attaining planning permission,

Miss Patel said, was because such a project had never been attempted in the town before.

"No-one had ever been to the council to ask, can we put a boat on the river and open it as a restaurant?" she said.

The Patel family has previously run The Clicker pub in Abington and The Five Star bar in Wellingborough Road and said their new venue would employ 20 people.

'The Ark will triumph'

■ The leader of Northampton Borough Council, Councillor David Mackintosh (Con, Rectory Farm), is expecting The Ark, with its top deck outdoor seating area and pleasant views, to be a summer hit. He said: "It's great to see it finally opening."

"It fits in well with all the wider things that are happening here on Becket's Park and the surrounding area. ■ Also with the university set to relocate to the Waterside campus in a few years' time, we're going to be seeing a lot more people in this area."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Trevor Skidmore feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Northampton, Kettering, Wellingborough & Corby areas and Trevor is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Trevor a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Using skilled manipulation and quick, comfortable adjustment techniques, with just the right amount of pressure, Chiropractors gently unlock the stiff joints to restore proper function and mobility. This in turn settles the pain. The vulnerable area is then stabilised with further treatments. When the pain and discomfort are reduced, the next step is to help you get active again. Hundred of overgrown trees ready to get chop

Plans are to be put in place to remove hundreds of overgrown trees planted around the eastern district of Northampton in the 1970s, after a flurry of complaints from residents.

Borough councillor Dennis Meredith (Lib Dem, Talavera) said the majority of concerns raised by people in his ward were due to large leafy varieties blocking out light, shedding debris and damaging property with large roots.

On Monday, he put a motion to the council asking that it develops a plan to remove 'problematic' trees in the area, which gained cross-party approval.

He said: "A lot of these are now encroaching on people's lives. On some of the main roads you can see them expanding out into the road. The thing is, most of these trees are forest varieties and most of them should never have been planted where they are."

Councillor Meredith believes the offending trees were among 10,000 planted in the borough in 1974 as part of a government scheme. It was initially predicted only a quarter of those would survive, but the varieties grew more successfully than was first envisaged.

Councillor Dennis Meredith is hoping to get a number of trees removed.

"The majority of these trees have had no work done to them in 40 years," he added.

"In all the years I've lived there I have never seen one thinned out completely," he said.

The borough council has resolved to delegate its overview and scrutiny committee responsibility to draw up a plan to remove the problematic trees, which are most prominent in Southfields and Thorplands.

Councillor Phil Larratt (Con, East Hunsbury) supported the motion, but said a tree removal scheme could easily be rolled out across the whole town. "It's not just a problem in the eastern district; the south and the Hunsburys are particularly bad."

"At least 50 per cent of case-work that comes my way is related to trees," he added.

Concern over new cab ranks

By CALLUM JONES
Chronicle Reporter
callum.jones@northantsnews.co.uk

Plans to install two new black cab ranks in Bridge Street in Northampton town centre are expected to be approved next week despite objections from some residents and business owners.

Members of Northampton Borough Council's licensing committee are due to discuss a review of the Hackney carriage ranks in Northampton town centre at a meeting next Tuesday.

The new black cab ranks are proposed at the top and bottom of Bridge Street, Mercers Row and outside the Roadmender nightclub on Lady's Lane and they would be in operation between 11pm and 5am.

The proposal, which would create a total of 29 black cab pitches, is expected to be approved as it has the full support of Northamptonshire Police.

Martin O'Connell, licensing and nightsafe sergeant, said the new taxi ranks would alleviate the "chaotic" traffic situation in the town centre on Friday and Saturday nights, between 3am and 4.30am, and would help get people away from the town quickly and more efficiently.

Sgt O'Connell said the lack of taxi ranks currently led to long queues of people waiting in Mercers Row.

Claims ranks will increase littering

■ A total of 10 objections to the proposed new taxi ranks have been sent to Northampton Borough Council.

■ Mohammed Ahmin, who runs the Royal Bengal restaurant in Bridge Street, said he was concerned the new cab ranks would lead to people urinating and vomiting in the doorway of his business.

■ A number of residents in the Clarendon House flats in Bridge Street also raised concerns about the possible increase in noise, litter and anti-social behaviour.

'No more events on Rec' plea residents

Funfairs and events are ruining Far Cotton Recreation Ground in Northampton according to a local residents' group, which is calling for an immediate stop.

Members of the Far Cotton Residents' Association are lobbying Northampton Borough Council to stop allowing events on the Rec as it says large numbers of people attending the occasions and heavy vehicles are causing permanent damage to the ground.

Speaking at Monday night's full Northampton Borough Council meeting, Ronald Fitzgugh, of the residents' association, said: "Over the past few years the condition of Far Cotton Rec has deteriorated.

"The residents of Far Cotton have said 'enough is enough'.

"We want no more events held there until further notice."

In recent months, the Northampton Carnival has been held at the recreation ground as well

VOCAL PROTEST Members of Far Cotton Residents' Association are calling for an end to events on the recreation ground until further notice as a large funfair on September 1.

The effects of so many events, Mr Fitzgugh said, was also causing havoc for the neighbours around the grounds, with litter, anti-social behaviour and illegal parking being increasing issues on event days.

The damage caused by vehicles and large volumes of people on the site was made worse, he said, by the poor drainage on-site.

This was caused as a result of collapsed drains under its surface, he added.

'Events comply with law for open area'

EVENTS on Far Cotton Rec complied with the law and were for the benefit of the local community, the borough council has said.

The recreation ground was granted Town Green status in 2010 by the borough council, which preserves the land for recreational uses in the future by law.

Cabinet member for environment at Northampton Borough Council, Councillor Mike Hallam (Con, Parklands) responded by saying he would be happy to meet residents to "discuss their views".

He added: "The essential characteristic of a Town Green is that it is there for the use and benefit of the locality for the purpose of recreation, among other things.

"Holding a fun fair on the green for the benefit and recreation of residents in the locality complies with the law."

But Ronald Fitzgugh said the council, which owns the land, has 'disregarded' those laws by taking bookings for so many events there and urged for full consultation.

Classroom opening delayed

Reception children at a primary school in Northampton have been told to stay at home for extra weeks as a new classroom, which was due to be completed during the summer holidays, has not been finished yet.

As part of plans to add an extra 210 places to Delapre Primary School, building work has been carried out over the past few weeks to construct a new classroom for reception children.

However, a spokesman for Northamptonshire County Council said "a combination of factors" meant the buildings were not ready to be occupied yet and the reception children would not be able to start school until Monday, September 29.

The spokesman said: "We understand that for the children who were looking forward to their first day at school, it's frustrating to have to wait a bit longer. But we've worked hard with the school and the builders to make sure the new reception facilities

Opening soon Reception children have had their school starting date delayed by two weeks due to building work at Delapre Primary School can open as soon as possible.

"The reason for the delay is a combination of factors linked to the availability of construction materials and the need to resolve a specific design challenge that couldn't have reasonably been foreseen.

"This work is part of a much bigger £18million programme to extend 11 primary schools in Northampton."

'Decision was not taken lightly'

■ Harry Portrey, headteacher of Delapre Primary School, said delaying the start date for reception pupils was not a decision that had been taken lightly as the school did not want an "unsettling start" for the children.

Writing on the school's website Mr Portrey said: "Over the holiday we have been regularly spending time at school checking the progress of the building work, attending meetings and looking at plans. As each week has passed by, we have become more and more agitated and concerned about deadlines and the reception area not being ready," Mr Portrey added. "We want the children to have the best start to life here at Delapre and appreciate that in a number of ways we are letting them down. "We hope that once the children do finally start at the school we are able to ensure that they are settled as quickly as possible," Mr Portrey said.

RSPCA in appeal to rehome 100 cats

BY CALLUM JONES
Email: callum.jones@northantsnews.co.uk
Tel:

The RSPCA Northamptonshire branch is in "desperate" need of new owners for more than 100 cats it currently has in its care.

The branch, which serves the whole of the county, said it was almost at "crisis point" with 125 cats and kittens in its care.

As the branch does not have its own animal centre, some of the animals are in private boarding, while the rest are being cared for by foster carers.

However, the branch does not have the space or the fosterers to take on any more pets and still has a waiting list of more than 30 cats needing its care.

Jacqui Kelly, branch manager, said: "We are completely struggling at the moment with 125 cats and kittens. We have so many more cats and kittens in our care than normal and

More than 100 cats at the RSPCA Northamptonshire branch are in need of a new home. An open day is being held next month we are aware of more than 30 due to come into our care with urgent welfare concerns and we just don't have the space.

"We desperately need to find new homes for those currently in our care, then we can free up space to take in new cats. It is a constant spiral and we just hope the public will help us."

The branch is hosting a rehoming event at the Animal Medical Centre in Northampton on October 12. The event will be from noon until 4pm at Animal Medical Centre, 1 The Drive, Northampton. To find out more about adopting from the branch, call 07840 926122 or email adoptions@rspca-northamptonshire.org.uk

'Poor planning' for centre closure bid

Plans to close a children's centre and relocate its services to other venues have been "poorly planned and poorly evidenced", according to Healthwatch Northamptonshire.

Daventry East Children's Centre, on the Southbrook estate, provides day care facilities and activities for young children in one of the most deprived areas of the town. But Northamptonshire County Council and Action for Children said the building in Benbow Close was too expensive to run and had poor disabled access.

The county council's cabinet voted in favour of closing the centre and relocating its services to a range of venues, including The Abbey Centre and Daventry Library.

But speaking at the September Healthwatch board meeting, chairman Professor Will Pope said: "We are not against change per se. What we don't like is change that is unplanned, poorly planned or poorly evidenced."

Daventry East Children's Centre has been earmarked for closure

The Healthwatch board resolved to oppose the closure because it said the county council had provided limited information on how it would impact on vulnerable families.

Healthwatch officer Kate Holt said parents of children who use the service were largely against the plans and said the county council had not provided details of the cost of renovating the current building.

Speaking at an earlier meeting, cabinet member for children's services, Councillor Heather Smith, said there had been a lack of understanding over the way children's services in Northamptonshire were changing.

She said: "I know this is a particularly difficult subject for the campaigners. But the service is no longer about buildings; it is about using the money we have to help the most vulnerable and a lot of that work must be carried out in their own homes."

Political rivals prepare to go head to head on Derngate stage

The election battle lines will be drawn months ahead of next year's vote... on the dance floor at Royal & Derngate as two politicians go head to head.

Michael Ellis, MP for Northampton North, will take on his political rival, the Labour Prospective Parliamentary candidate for that area, Sally Keeble.

Both will join 14 other contestants for the show on November 22, sponsored by Aspers Casino and produced in association with the University of Northampton.

Conservative MP Michael told the Chron: "I am very much looking forward to it, but I'm a little bit nervous as, at this stage, I can't dance for toffee apples. I will be a blank canvas for whoever tries to teach me to dance."

Labour's Sally Keeble said she had been inspired to take part to raise money for Cynthia Spencer in memory of the late

ROAD TEST - SKODA CITIGO ELE GANCE 1.0 MPI 75PS AUTOMATIC 3-DR

Best is not always most expensive

If you admit to playing 'fantasy garage' amid thoughts of a giant Lottery win, then here's a contender to park among the Ferraris and Bentleys.

Yes, seriously, this little car from Skoda has just given me some of my most blissful miles of motoring for months. Easily good enough for us to develop a deep emotional bond.

To reach this state of motoring grace you'll need your own Citigo to come equipped with a couple of extras.

Then you, too, won't need to be in a hurry. Oh, and the sun needs to be shining.

Built in Slovakia, it is a rather more mature and sober approach to minimal motoring than you'll find in the peppier products from rivals like Fiat and Renault, both of them building machines with deliberate small car verve.

If you like your cars to reflect big car values, you'll love the Citigo. It feels like a big car that has shrunk in the wash, with solid controls and practical, hard-wearing surfaces.

There's as much room inside as you could possibly squeeze into a car that leaves so much to spare in a supermarket parking space, you could picnic in the sunshine before setting off for home.

It helped that the sun was shining and the extra £650 worth of glass, electrically operated sunroof was wide open, letting me enjoy a gentle breeze while pull-across netting kept out the glare.

No need to hurry.

On days like this, who needs a Ferrari?

In Memoriam

SEAN GREEN

22nd September 2007

7 years have passed since you left our hearts to rest in a peaceful place. Your light shines bright and will always ignite to help us get through life.

Love always
Dad,
Gregg, Cathy
and Mia.
xxx

Those we love remain with us for love itself lives on, and cherished memories never fade because a loved one's gone. Those we love can never be more than a thought apart, for as long as there is memory, they'll live on in the heart.

County release Middlebrook

All-rounder to leave as Northants prepare for life in division two

Northants will not be offering all-rounder James Middlebrook a new deal when his contract expires at the end of this season.

The 37-year-old, who joined in 2010 after spells with Essex and his native Yorkshire, is playing in the ongoing LV= County Championship game against Sussex which will be his last for the club.

It seemed unlikely Middlebrook would be retained as the County seek to put together a more youthful team for next season.

However, his contribution to the side over the years cannot be faulted with his first-class record alone showing over 3,300 runs and 134 wickets.

This season, one that has seen the side struggle enormously in Division One. He is the leading runscorer on 777 and third-highest wicket taker with 28.

Tightening finances and an emphasis on younger player means Middlebrook joins David Sales, Andrew Hall and Matthew Spriegel in heading for the exit door.

As head coach David Ripley told us yesterday: "The reality of the situation is that we are preparing for life in Division Two again and that has an impact on our playing budget."

In a statement announcing Middlebrook's departure, Ripley explained: "These are always difficult decisions to make regarding players' futures."

"We would like to place on record our thanks to James for the contribution he has made throughout his time at Wantage Road and, in particular, for the leadership role he has taken during what has been a particularly difficult season in 2014."

"He leaves with the best wishes of everyone at the club."

Middlebrook added: "I would like to thank the members who have made me feel most welcome during my time here and all the team-mates with whom I have shared a dressing-room."

"I wish them every good fortune as I now focus on the next stage of my career."

Mallinder hopes trio will be fit to face Bath

JIM MALLINDER is hopeful three of his England stars will be fit in time for Saturday's mouthwatering Premiership showdown with Bath.

Tom Wood and Stephen Myler missed Sunday's 35-10 success at Newcastle Falcons with back and calf injuries respectively.

And Courtney Lawes was forced off early in the second half of the game at Kingston Park as he was nursing a shoulder knock.

But Mallinder is confident the injury victims will be available for this weekend's home clash with a Bath side who went top of the table with a 45-0 thrashing of Leicester last Saturday.

"Courtney Lawes took a little bit of a blow to his shoulder in the first half and came out a little bit sore, so it was pointless risking him with big games around the corner," revealed the Saints boss. "Tom Wood was a late withdrawal with his bad back, and playing on the surface at Newcastle we didn't want to take any chances."

"He picked up the injury against Gloucester in the first game of the season and it's settling down so hopeful ly with a rest at the weekend he'll be fine for Saturday."

"We're certainly hoping Stephen will be back."

"It's a calf strain and we're hoping he'll be able to take part in training and be available for Saturday."
